The fast changing international business environment bring in the need for a new generation of qualified and skilled management professionals. The P.G. Centre for Management Studies (PGCMS), SMIT aspires to be a pioneer in creating and moulding a new generation of young management professionals.

Business education is evolving rapidly to keep pace with the changing requirement of business in the 21st century. MBA education today needs to produce a different breed of managers who can constantly innovate and identify opportunities to achieve corporate goals. They should be able to provide leadership and inspiration to others, make business work better and adapt themselves to the extremely demanding, culturally-diverse work environment of various national as well as international organizations. The PGCMS caters to these requirements by improving the curriculum design, adopting new approaches to pedagogy and offering job oriented specializations both within and outside the MBA programme.

Join the prestigious SMIT- MBA Alumni network.

In the halls at PGCMS- SMIT, you'll grow a powerful and influential professional network, starting with a special bond between you and everyone from your year. It's a bond that will last a lifetime. As an SMIT MBA, you'll also have access to one of the most prestigious alumni networks in India and the world. That means more "who you knows" than you will likely ever need. Ivey alumni are busy leading the business world, but they also maintain strong connections to the Institution as recruiters, guest speakers, sponsors and mentors. SMIT does more than just connect you to influential people. You'll also learn the art of effectively leveraging those connections. Developing new relationships and building on the ones you have is a core skill that's vital to your career. SMIT- MBA graduates have a culture of saying "yes" to meeting with other Ivey grads to talk business or mutual opportunities. This culture is fostered from day one and continues well beyond graduation. SMIT alumni "get" each other, and they know that you chose SMIT because you value what makes it different from traditional business schools. That shared connection says a lot about who you are today and who you will become.

We provide Opportunity as well as Capability into Successful careers !

Alumni :

Alumni Association has been formed and it has been managed by the students with the help of institution staff. Regular meetings are held for the exchange of thoughts and ideas. The alumni of the institution help the students to get the updated knowledge of current market situations and career guidance. The association plays a pivotal role in recruitment process of students. A large number of students are placed by the alumni who hold prime positions in different sections of the industries.
